The primary goal of this semester was to complete the firmware portion of our project, which has been completed to where we have two extruders with one hotend turning on. We are incorporating a new dual extruder design which should theoretically work with the firmware. Also, the launch of our Kickstarter campaign along with the completion of design document are among other outcomes we plan to accomplish by the end of the semester.